

General Permissions Information:

Instructions for obtaining permission to use the NC Medical Journal copyrighted material follow.

Permission requests may be submitted by fax, e-mail or regular mail; approval for requests will be issued by fax, e-mail or regular mail.

1. Requests may be submitted by regular mail, fax or e-mail. Please include full name, address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail address. Phone Permission Requests are not accepted.
2. Submit only one request for each intended use. Duplicate requests cause confusion and extra work thus adding to the processing time.
3. Blanket permissions are not issued. It is necessary to submit a permission request for each intended use.
4. Permission will not be granted until the article has been published in the NC Medical Journal.
5. Permission fees are determined by the intended use, number of copies, and other factors.
6. Permission is not granted to place the full article on other web sites.
7. Requests to reproduce charts, tables, figures, graphs or other illustrations, abstracts, or quotes will be considered for print and online uses.
8. The details of any modifications, adaptations, or changes in content must be received by the NC Medical Journal before we can process your request.
9. Most requests are handled within 6 to 8 working days once we have the needed information.
10. If you are working with a specific deadline, please highlight that in your request, and we will attempt to meet your needs.
11. Permission is never granted for use of the NC Medical Journal for endorsements, implied or otherwise, of products or services.
12. Permission will not be granted to use content from the NC Medical Journal as part of advertisements or advertising supplements.
13. Requests are not granted to reproduce the full article from the NC Medical Journal in other journals.
